REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Amendment

The Amendment after Non-Final filed August 1, 2007 has been received and made of record. In response to the Non-Final Office Action of May 2, 2007, Applicant has amended claims 1, 3, 8, and 10, and has added dependent claim 11. Claims 2, 4-7, and 9 have been canceled.

In regard to independent claim 1, the Applicant has sufficiently amended the claim to overcome the prior art, and thus the claim is considered to be in condition for allowance. Please refer to the detailed reasons for allowance set forth below, along with the reasons for allowance of dependent claims 3, 8, 10, and 11.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 3, 8, 10, and 11 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regard to independent claim 1, the prior art was not found to teach or reasonably suggest an image capturing apparatus comprising a first auto focusing device which is a charge coupled device auto focus, a second auto focusing device which is an auto focus including a ranging device, wherein a controlling device is configured to switch between the first auto focusing device and second auto focusing device according to a subject distance obtained by the ranging device, the controlling device configured to carry out an evaluation in a peripheral focusing range of a focusing condition which corresponds to the subject distance obtained by the ranging device, and set the peripheral focusing range according to a comparison of a distance difference between a maximum distance to each part of the subject and a minimum distance to each part of the subject to a predetermined value (D1), and finally the controlling device is configured to switch between the first auto focusing device and the second auto focusing device according to a presence or absence of a peak evaluation value (Cmax) in the peripheral focusing range.

Claims 3, 8, 10, and 11 are considered allowable based upon their dependence from allowable independent claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
